

EDMONTON CAPITAL

VOL. 2. EDMONTON CAPITAL, TUESDAY, AUGUST 22, 1911 Weather—Fine and Warmer No. 210

Eastern Capitalists Invest Heavily In Edmonton Lands

Holdings in Edmonton and Vegreville Districts Valued at $200,000—Party Took in Exhibition and Were Delighted with Stock Show

Farm lands to the value of $200,000 have been purchased during the past week by a party of men who are now touring the west under the direction of T. A. Neely, of Meaford, Ontario, who is making a business of interesting eastern capital in western farm lands and real estate. The land is in the vicinity of Vegreville, and practically all of it is along the Canadian Northern railway in Alberta.

A special car bearing the sixteen members of the party arrived in Edmonton yesterday afternoon, and the C.N.R. from the south. Coming west they left Winnipeg on August 12th, arriving at Vegreville a week ago yesterday morning. Several days were spent in the vicinity of Vegreville after the party came on to Edmonton. They visited the exhibition on Wednesday and Thursday. On Friday they went to Calgary and returned on Saturday to visit the Selkirk district and the country around Camrose and Stettin. More time would have been spent in these districts had the rain not made it impossible to get about in automobiles. The party left Edmonton for the east over the C.N.R. at 10 o'clock last night.

"The September party will not have the east until after election day," said Mr. Neely. "As a number of the men who will come out with it are keenly interested in the election. Those who visited the exhibition last week were well pleased with the exhibits of stock and farm products there, and were greatly surprised at the modern layout of the grounds."

Included in the party of which Mr. Neely has charge, are Alexander Cameron, North Toronto; John Salmon, Maple, Ontario; Malcolm and Hector McMillan, fish dealers of Meaford; E. Raymond, manager of the Thursday Transportation and Reduction company; John Eaton, Meaford, farmer; Albert Long, Meaford, retired farmer; A. W. Sheath, Elmhurst, merchant and ex-warden of Simcoe county; James Cameron, King, Ontario, retiree of Vancouver township, and others.

COMPLETE LINE TO LANDING THIS FALL

STEEL HEAD NOW FOUR MILES NORTH OF CLYDE AND WORK IS BEING PUSHED

Although fears have been expressed from time to time that Athabasca Landing will not get railway communication this year, John McIntyre, superintendent of construction on the line between Morrisville and the Landing, stated to the Capital this morning that the completion of the line before winter is practically assured. Accompanied by C. V. Guinness, secretary of the Northern Construction Company, who holds the contract for the Athabasca Landing line, Mr. McIntyre arrived in the city from the north yesterday. The two railway men are staying at the King Edward hotel. They left Athabasca Landing on Sunday morning to come to Edmonton.

"The steel head is now four miles north of Clyde," said Mr. McIntyre. "The track laying outfit is still working pushing the steel further north, and steel will be laid to Stony Creek, six miles north of Edmonton, before it will be necessary to wait for the completion of more grade. There are stretches of grade all the way to the Landing, and the men are ready for the steel but there are gaps between that will have to be filled in."

"There is little doubt that steel will reach Athabasca Landing this fall," he continued. "It will get there before it rains every day until the freeze up." Mr. McIntyre stated that there has been a great deal of rain in the district through which railway construction is being carried on. It has held up the grading to a great extent and it will be to delay the date of completion of the line.

PATENT MEDICINE WORTH $7,000,000

WERE EXPORTED FROM UNITED STATES LAST YEAR—CANADA'S SHARE $335,000

(Western Associated Press) Washington, Aug. 22.—Nearly $7,000,000 worth of patent medicine were exported from the United States in the past year, and for the past year the aggregate amounts to more than $50,000,000. These figures as compiled from the official records of the department of statistics, department of commerce and labor, included only that class of export products, including "medicines, patent and proprietary," that of the total value, $335,000 were exported to Canada.

CANADA BEST OF ALL.

(Western Associated Press) New York, N.Y., Aug. 22.—Frank Kane, one of the wealthiest men in Sydney, Australia, arrived in New York yesterday. Coffee, who is making a business trip around the world, said today: "New York is a wonder and my adopted country, Australia is another marvel, but Canada, which I have just visited, has possibilities undreamed of. vast fortunes will be made there every year."

WINNIPEGERS SAY THEY SAW AIRSHIP

WAS HOVERING IN SKY ALL NIGHT AND RESIDENTS OF PRAIRIE CITY ARE WONDERING

(Western Associated Press) Winnipeg, Man., Aug. 22.—A mysterious flying object, a very large, very involving an airplane, a secret of the police, who is a total abstainer, a taxi driver and a newspaper man, whose integrity is vouched for as undoubted, by his paper this morning, has Winnipeg guessing today.

The policeman is Sergeant Rice, and his backers swear that for three long hours last night the "Crackling" whir of an aeroplane engine reached North Winnipeg from a point 2,000 feet in the overhead clouds. All night they watched the machine circle through space, but with dawn it disappeared, and the newspaper brains of the city are now out on a futile search for the midnight aerial prowler.

Whether it was a purely mental vision, or a canvas and stage, or some other flimsy, remains unknown.

"That it was an imaginary airship prompted by a double delusion of the senses is believed generally. Rice swears and the newspaper men swear that for three actual hours they saw" and hundreds saw, a mechanical bird drifting through space. The city has received and made numerous other experiments in aerodynamics, of a successful flight in home-built air perambulator.

Included in the party of which Mr. Neely has charge, are Alexander Cameron, North Toronto; John Salmon, Maple, Ontario; Malcolm and Hector McMillan, fish dealers of Meaford; E. Raymond, manager of the Thursday Transportation and Reduction company; John Eaton, Meaford, farmer; Albert Long, Meaford, retired farmer; A. W. Sheath, Elmhurst, merchant and ex-warden of Simcoe county; James Cameron, King, Ontario, retiree of Vancouver township, and others.

COLDSTREAM GUARDS COMING.

(London, Aug. 22.—The Allan Line, Virginian, will likely sail from Liverpool today. On the boat will be the Coldstream Guards band.

SELECT THREE DIVISIONAL POINTS FOR THE GRAND TRUNK PACIFIC IN B. C.

(Western Associated Press) Vancouver, Aug. 22.—The definite announcement of the location of three divisional points on the Grand Trunk Pacific railway in British Columbia was made today by G. U. Ryley, land commissioner and chief townsite agent of the company.

Mr. Ryley will accompany President Hays and party to Prince Rupert next week. He will also go inland several hundred miles, probably as far as Houston. The first divisional point out of Prince Rupert will be up the line about 120 miles, the second one will be located east of Hazelton, near Aldermere, in Bulkley Valley, some distance west of Houston, and the third divisional point is to be located near Hazelton. There will be at least one, and possibly two divisional points on the line between Fort George and Edson, Alta. Nothing definite has been given out regarding a divisional point at Fort George.

URGE MEXICO TO PAY HUGE AMOUNT AGAIN ADJOURNED

WOMEN'S ASSOCIATION, VANCOUVER, WANT $200,000 AS DAMAGES TO CHINESE IN MEXICO

(Vancouver, Aug. 22.—A remarkable request has just been made upon the president of Mexico by the Chinese Female Students' association of Vancouver and Victoria, in which the members of the organization ask that two millions be paid to the families of Chinese who suffered in the recent revolutionary activities. The young women set forth that the Chinese injured by the revolutionists are justly entitled to the amount named. They stated that China, in the course of the next ten or twelve years will be a naval power, and will be able to take care of its interests in a more forcible and effective manner than at present. The hint is given that by paying money China will be greatly pleased, and will have a tendency to be decidedly friendly to the southern republic.

FATALITY IN WOUND ON BLIND BAGGAGE

TWO YOUNG MEN FOUND SERIOUSLY HURT IN RAILWAY YARDS AT PORT ARTHUR

(Western Associated Press) Port Arthur, Ont., Aug. 22.—Jumping from a blind baggage of a swiftly moving train on which he was taking a ride in order to avoid arrest, the arrival at Port Arthur may prove fatal to Mr. Arthur Sinclair, and A. A. Koutchuk. When found on the track on the outskirts of the city this morning Sinclair's skull was crushed, and the doctors declare him dying. Kendrick is also badly injured, but may recover. Both had been injured by W. C. Woodside, a Port Arthur laborer.

WISCONSIN PAYING EDMONTON VISIT

(NATIVE OF BRITANNIA IS ON TOUR OF STATES AND CANADA—IS DELIGHTED WITH WEST) A visitor to the city today is Viscount Kerguelan, a native of Brittany, who with his wife is touring Canada and the United States. They have visited many of the cities of Eastern Canada, and he has during the summer months. "People who come up during the winter can see how the stock is kept and how the people live during the cold weather," he said. "They can see the character of the soil, the nature of the buildings and the development of the cities that the country is prosperous. Viscount and his wife are in their special car attached to the regular C. N. R. train this evening.

SPECIAL MEETING OF FRENCH CABINET

(Paris, Aug. 22.—Premier Galloux is taking counsel of best diplomatic and political wisdom of France during our certainty in the Moroccan negotiations, with Germany. The French ambassador at Berlin, London and Rome, Louis Cambon, Paul Cambon, and Gamble Barriere, who had been summoned to Paris were received by M. Galloux today.

G.T.P. OFFICIALS REACH CITY THIS AFTERNOON

(On a special train which left Winnipeg last evening, President Hays of the G.T.P., accompanied by Alfred Smithers, one of the directors of the road will arrive in Edmonton this afternoon. From Edmonton they will go over the right of way to the head of steel and it is understood that the object of the trip is to make a personal inspection of the work for awarding the contract on the last leg of the transcontinental, a stretch of 110 miles west of Teulon, Man.

OPEN CAMPAIGN TOMORROW NIGHT

HON. A. C. RUTHERFORD LIBERAL CANDIDATE TO ADDRESS MEETING AT ODEONVILLE HALL

Tomorrow evening at a mass meeting in the Odeonville hall, Newwood at Odeon, Hon. A. C. Rutherford will open the Liberal electoral campaign for the federal constituency of Edmonton. He will be accompanied on the platform by Hon. G. W. Gross, and a number of other prominent Liberals will also speak during the course of the evening. The meeting will be the first of a series to be held throughout the city of Edmonton, while arrangements have been made for a number of meetings throughout the district. The date and time will be announced later.

$69,350 Where did it come from?

MINNESOTA TEMPERANCE RALLY

(Fairfax, Minn., Aug. 22.—Temperance workers from every section of the state, among them many noted temperance speakers and lecturers, are gathered here to attend the Minnesota state convention of the Women's Christian Temperance Union, which opened here today for a session of four days. Throughout the summer the company has been bringing to Canada two parties a month, on an average and they will be kept up until December 1st.

When the members of each party return to their homes they create new interest in the development of the Canadian west and it becomes easier to gather together more people in their special car attached to the regular C. N. R. train this evening.

Many Americans Have Invested In Alberta

One Firm Alone Brings 500 Settlers from Across the Line and Indicates Are That Real Rush for Land Has Barely Commenced—Interested in North

More than 500 American land seekers have been brought to Western Canada since the first of the year by the International Realty Company according to C. M. Boyle, a member of the firm who is in the city today with a party of 25 investors from Illinois, Indiana and Wisconsin. They arrived on Sunday in a special car attached to the regular C. N. R. train from Winnipeg. Throughout the summer the company has been bringing to Canada two parties a month, on an average and they will be kept up until December 1st.

When the members of each party return to their homes they create new interest in the development of the Canadian west and it becomes easier to gather together more people in their special car attached to the regular C. N. R. train this evening.

WISCONSIN PAYING EDMONTON VISIT

(NATIVE OF BRITANNIA IS ON TOUR OF STATES AND CANADA—IS DELIGHTED WITH WEST) A visitor to the city today is Viscount Kerguelan, a native of Brittany, who with his wife is touring Canada and the United States. They have visited many of the cities of Eastern Canada, and he has during the summer months. "People who come up during the winter can see how the stock is kept and how the people live during the cold weather," he said. "They can see the character of the soil, the nature of the buildings and the development of the cities that the country is prosperous. Viscount and his wife are in their special car attached to the regular C. N. R. train this evening.

SPECIAL MEETING OF FRENCH CABINET

(Paris, Aug. 22.—Premier Galloux is taking counsel of best diplomatic and political wisdom of France during our certainty in the Moroccan negotiations, with Germany. The French ambassador at Berlin, London and Rome, Louis Cambon, Paul Cambon, and Gamble Barriere, who had been summoned to Paris were received by M. Galloux today.

G.T.P. OFFICIALS REACH CITY THIS AFTERNOON

(On a special train which left Winnipeg last evening, President Hays of the G.T.P., accompanied by Alfred Smithers, one of the directors of the road will arrive in Edmonton this afternoon. From Edmonton they will go over the right of way to the head of steel and it is understood that the object of the trip is to make a personal inspection of the work for awarding the contract on the last leg of the transcontinental, a stretch of 110 miles west of Teulon, Man.

WHY FRANK OLIVER DID FOR THE MANITOBA AND SOUTH EASTERN

STRIKE COST $50,000,000 (Canadian Associated Press) London, Aug. 22.—After a visit to the railway offices a conservative estimate shows the cost to the community of the recent strike will be $10,000,000 exclusive of the increased profits of the companies which amount to many thousands.

Private Company Records Show Strange Transaction by Which C. N. R. Got 680,320 Acres of Saskatchewan Land to Which They Had Not Shadow of Claim

LAND GRANT DEAL CONTEMPORANEOUS WITH OLIVER'S SUDDEN ACQUISITION OF WEALTH

Throughout the controversy which has arisen with regard to Frank Oliver's sudden acquisition of wealth as indicated by his bank account there is suggestion which has been constantly in the fore, and that is that this acquisition of wealth might not have been altogether disconnected with the transfer of a certain land grant made to the Manitoba and South Eastern Railway, now the Canadian Northern, from the forbidding and rocky barrens of Eastern Manitoba where it was practically valueless, to the fertile plains of Saskatchewan, where a like number of acres netted the railway magnates millions of dollars.

It is worthy to note that when the Oliver changes were first sprung last Frank Oliver sized upon the mere mention of it to declare that this transaction was in no way related to his sudden acquisition of wealth, and at the danger of being numbered as one of those who dash protest too much he rushed Young of the Interior department into the witness box on the first day of the investigation to give evidence to the effect that this transfer was made in the orthodox and regular way, and that there was nothing in the records of the Interior department to indicate that it was in any way peculiar or unusual.

In his zeal to give this evidence, however, Oliver's deputy brought altogether too much to the fore, for he showed that there had been no correspondence of any kind, not even the scratch of a pen, between Frank Oliver and the people who were the beneficiaries of this luscious deal. In fact, the whole department showed, when the matter of private arrangement between Oliver and Mackenzie & Mann, or their agents, nothing at all going on record to show the public why ten or twenty million dollars worth of their lands had been handed over to a company which had not even the slightest moral claim to it, let alone a legal claim.

Whether the deal really had anything to do with Oliver's contemporaneous acquisition of wealth or not is, of course, something that nobody but the Mackenzie & Mann syndicate could tell, and they are not likely to, especially if they are already given them. Frank Oliver is already given them, and from them that he got the money. The deal, however, has such a legal appearance that a little study of it leaves room for only one of two conclusions: either Frank Oliver was crooked and sold his country out to the Canadian Northern, or he is so thoroughly incapable that it is a luscious claim.

Whether the deal really had anything to do with Oliver's contemporaneous acquisition of wealth or not is, of course, something that nobody but the Mackenzie & Mann syndicate could tell, and they are not likely to, especially if they are already given them. Frank Oliver is already given them, and from them that he got the money. The deal, however, has such a legal appearance that a little study of it leaves room for only one of two conclusions: either Frank Oliver was crooked and sold his country out to the Canadian Northern, or he is so thoroughly incapable that it is a luscious claim.

Whether the deal really had anything to do with Oliver's contemporaneous acquisition of wealth or not is, of course, something that nobody but the Mackenzie & Mann syndicate could tell, and they are not likely to, especially if they are already given them. Frank Oliver is already given them, and from them that he got the money. The deal, however, has such a legal appearance that a little study of it leaves room for only one of two conclusions: either Frank Oliver was crooked and sold his country out to the Canadian Northern, or he is so thoroughly incapable that it is a luscious claim.

Whether the deal really had anything to do with Oliver's contemporaneous acquisition of wealth or not is, of course, something that nobody but the Mackenzie & Mann syndicate could tell, and they are not likely to, especially if they are already given them. Frank Oliver is already given them, and from them that he got the money. The deal, however, has such a legal appearance that a little study of it leaves room for only one of two conclusions: either Frank Oliver was crooked and sold his country out to the Canadian Northern, or he is so thoroughly incapable that it is a luscious claim.

Whether the deal really had anything to do with Oliver's contemporaneous acquisition of wealth or not is, of course, something that nobody but the Mackenzie & Mann syndicate could tell, and they are not likely to, especially if they are already given them. Frank Oliver is already given them, and from them that he got the money. The deal, however, has such a legal appearance that a little study of it leaves room for only one of two conclusions: either Frank Oliver was crooked and sold his country out to the Canadian Northern, or he is so thoroughly incapable that it is a luscious claim.

Whether the deal really had anything to do with Oliver's contemporaneous acquisition of wealth or not is, of course, something that nobody but the Mackenzie & Mann syndicate could tell, and they are not likely to, especially if they are already given them. Frank Oliver is already given them, and from them that he got the money. The deal, however, has such a legal appearance that a little study of it leaves room for only one of two conclusions: either Frank Oliver was crooked and sold his country out to the Canadian Northern, or he is so thoroughly incapable that it is a luscious claim.

Whether the deal really had anything to do with Oliver's contemporaneous acquisition of wealth or not is, of course, something that nobody but the Mackenzie & Mann syndicate could tell, and they are not likely to, especially if they are already given them. Frank Oliver is already given them, and from them that he got the money. The deal, however, has such a legal appearance that a little study of it leaves room for only one of two conclusions: either Frank Oliver was crooked and sold his country out to the Canadian Northern, or he is so thoroughly incapable that it is a luscious claim.

Whether the deal really had anything to do with Oliver's contemporaneous acquisition of wealth or not is, of course, something that nobody but the Mackenzie & Mann syndicate could tell, and they are not likely to, especially if they are already given them. Frank Oliver is already given them, and from them that he got the money. The deal, however, has such a legal appearance that a little study of it leaves room for only one of two conclusions: either Frank Oliver was crooked and sold his country out to the Canadian Northern, or he is so thoroughly incapable that it is a luscious claim.

Whether the deal really had anything to do with Oliver's contemporaneous acquisition of wealth or not is, of course, something that nobody but the Mackenzie & Mann syndicate could tell, and they are not likely to, especially if they are already given them. Frank Oliver is already given them, and from them that he got the money. The deal, however, has such a legal appearance that a little study of it leaves room for only one of two conclusions: either Frank Oliver was crooked and sold his country out to the Canadian Northern, or he is so thoroughly incapable that it is a luscious claim.

Whether the deal really had anything to do with Oliver's contemporaneous acquisition of wealth or not is, of course, something that nobody but the Mackenzie & Mann syndicate could tell, and they are not likely to, especially if they are already given them. Frank Oliver is already given them, and from them that he got the money. The deal, however, has such a legal appearance that a little study of it leaves room for only one of two conclusions: either Frank Oliver was crooked and sold his country out to the Canadian Northern, or he is so thoroughly incapable that it is a luscious claim.

Whether the deal really had anything to do with Oliver's contemporaneous acquisition of wealth or not is, of course, something that nobody but the Mackenzie & Mann syndicate could tell, and they are not likely to, especially if they are already given them. Frank Oliver is already given them, and from them that he got the money. The deal, however, has such a legal appearance that a little study of it leaves room for only one of two conclusions: either Frank Oliver was crooked and sold his country out to the Canadian Northern, or he is so thoroughly incapable that it is a luscious claim.

Whether the deal really had anything to do with Oliver's contemporaneous acquisition of wealth or not is, of course, something that nobody but the Mackenzie & Mann syndicate could tell, and they are not likely to, especially if they are already given them. Frank Oliver is already given them, and from them that he got the money. The deal, however, has such a legal appearance that a little study of it leaves room for only one of two conclusions: either Frank Oliver was crooked and sold his country out to the Canadian Northern, or he is so thoroughly incapable that it is a luscious claim.

Whether the deal really had anything to do with Oliver's contemporaneous acquisition of wealth or not is, of course, something that nobody but the Mackenzie & Mann syndicate could tell, and they are not likely to, especially if they are already given them. Frank Oliver is already given them, and from them that he got the money. The deal, however, has such a legal appearance that a little study of it leaves room for only one of two conclusions: either Frank Oliver was crooked and sold his country out to the Canadian Northern, or he is so thoroughly incapable that it is a luscious claim.

Whether the deal really had anything to do with Oliver's contemporaneous acquisition of wealth or not is, of course, something that nobody but the Mackenzie & Mann syndicate could tell, and they are not likely to, especially if they are already given them. Frank Oliver is already given them, and from them that he got the money. The deal, however, has such a legal appearance that a little study of it leaves room for only one of two conclusions: either Frank Oliver was crooked and sold his country out to the Canadian Northern, or he is so thoroughly incapable that it is a luscious claim.

Whether the deal really had anything to do with Oliver's contemporaneous acquisition of wealth or not is, of course, something that nobody but the Mackenzie & Mann syndicate could tell, and they are not likely to, especially if they are already given them. Frank Oliver is already given them, and from them that he got the money. The deal, however, has such a legal appearance that a little study of it leaves room for only one of two conclusions: either Frank Oliver was crooked and sold his country out to the Canadian Northern, or he is so thoroughly incapable that it is a luscious claim.

Whether the deal really had anything to do with Oliver's contemporaneous acquisition of wealth or not is, of course, something that nobody but the Mackenzie & Mann syndicate could tell, and they are not likely to, especially if they are already given them. Frank Oliver is already given them, and from them that he got the money. The deal, however, has such a legal appearance that a little study of it leaves room for only one of two conclusions: either Frank Oliver was crooked and sold his country out to the Canadian Northern, or he is so thoroughly incapable that it is a luscious claim.

Whether the deal really had anything to do with Oliver's contemporaneous acquisition of wealth or not is, of course, something that nobody but the Mackenzie & Mann syndicate could tell, and they are not likely to, especially if they are already given them. Frank Oliver is already given them, and from them that he got the money. The deal, however, has such a legal appearance that a little study of it leaves room for only one of two conclusions: either Frank Oliver was crooked and sold his country out to the Canadian Northern, or he is so thoroughly incapable that it is a luscious claim.

Whether the deal really had anything to do with Oliver's contemporaneous acquisition of wealth or not is, of course, something that nobody but the Mackenzie & Mann syndicate could tell, and they are not likely to, especially if they are already given them. Frank Oliver is already given them, and from them that he got the money. The deal, however, has such a legal appearance that a little study of it leaves room for only one of two conclusions: either Frank Oliver was crooked and sold his country out to the Canadian Northern, or he is so thoroughly incapable that it is a luscious claim.

Whether the deal really had anything to do with Oliver's contemporaneous acquisition of wealth or not is, of course, something that nobody but the Mackenzie & Mann syndicate could tell, and they are not likely to, especially if they are already given them. Frank Oliver is already given them, and from them that he got the money. The deal, however, has such a legal appearance that a little study of it leaves room for only one of two conclusions: either Frank Oliver was crooked and sold his country out to the Canadian Northern, or he is so thoroughly incapable that it is a luscious claim.

Whether the deal really had anything to do with Oliver's contemporaneous acquisition of wealth or not is, of course, something that nobody but the Mackenzie & Mann syndicate could tell, and they are not likely to, especially if they are already given them. Frank Oliver is already given them, and from them that he got the money. The deal, however, has such a legal appearance that a little study of it leaves room for only one of two conclusions: either Frank Oliver was crooked and sold his country out to the Canadian Northern, or he is so thoroughly incapable that it is a luscious claim.

Whether the deal really had anything to do with Oliver's contemporaneous acquisition of wealth or not is, of course, something that nobody but the Mackenzie & Mann syndicate could tell, and they are not likely to, especially if they are already given them. Frank Oliver is already given them, and from them that he got the money. The deal, however, has such a legal appearance that a little study of it leaves room for only one of two conclusions: either Frank Oliver was crooked and sold his country out to the Canadian Northern, or he is so thoroughly incapable that it is a luscious claim.

Whether the deal really had anything to do with Oliver's contemporaneous acquisition of wealth or not is, of course, something that nobody but the Mackenzie & Mann syndicate could tell, and they are not likely to, especially if they are already given them. Frank Oliver is already given them, and from them that he got the money. The deal, however, has such a legal appearance that a little study of it leaves room for only one of two conclusions: either Frank Oliver was crooked and sold his country out to the Canadian Northern, or he is so thoroughly incapable that it is a luscious claim.

Private Company Records Show Strange Transaction by Which C. N. R. Got 680,320 Acres of Saskatchewan Land to Which They Had Not Shadow of Claim

LAND GRANT DEAL CONTEMPORANEOUS WITH OLIVER'S SUDDEN ACQUISITION OF WEALTH

Throughout the controversy which has arisen with regard to Frank Oliver's sudden acquisition of wealth as indicated by his bank account there is suggestion which has been constantly in the fore, and that is that this acquisition of wealth might not have been altogether disconnected with the transfer of a certain land grant made to the Manitoba and South Eastern Railway, now the Canadian Northern, from the forbidding and rocky barrens of Eastern Manitoba where it was practically valueless, to the fertile plains of Saskatchewan, where a like number of acres netted the railway magnates millions of dollars.

It is worthy to note that when the Oliver changes were first sprung last Frank Oliver sized upon the mere mention of it to declare that this transaction was in no way related to his sudden acquisition of wealth, and at the danger of being numbered as one of those who dash protest too much he rushed Young of the Interior department into the witness box on the first day of the investigation to give evidence to the effect that this transfer was made in the orthodox and regular way, and that there was nothing in the records of the Interior department to indicate that it was in any way peculiar or unusual.

In his zeal to give this evidence, however, Oliver's deputy brought altogether too much to the fore, for he showed that there had been no correspondence of any kind, not even the scratch of a pen, between Frank Oliver and the people who were the beneficiaries of this luscious deal. In fact, the whole department showed, when the matter of private arrangement between Oliver and Mackenzie & Mann, or their agents, nothing at all going on record to show the public why ten or twenty million dollars worth of their lands had been handed over to a company which had not even the slightest moral claim to it, let alone a legal claim.

Whether the deal really had anything to do with Oliver's contemporaneous acquisition of wealth or not is, of course, something that nobody but the Mackenzie & Mann syndicate could tell, and they are not likely to, especially if they are already given them. Frank Oliver is already given them, and from them that he got the money. The deal, however, has such a legal appearance that a little study of it leaves room for only one of two conclusions: either Frank Oliver was crooked and sold his country out to the Canadian Northern, or he is so thoroughly incapable that it is a luscious claim.

Whether the deal really had anything to do with Oliver's contemporaneous acquisition of wealth or not is, of course, something that nobody but the Mackenzie & Mann syndicate could tell, and they are not likely to, especially if they are already given them. Frank Oliver is already given them, and from them that he got the money. The deal, however, has such a legal appearance that a little study of it leaves room for only one of two conclusions: either Frank Oliver was crooked and sold his country out to the Canadian Northern, or he is so thoroughly incapable that it is a luscious claim.

Whether the deal really had anything to do with Oliver's contemporaneous acquisition of wealth or not is, of course, something that nobody but the Mackenzie & Mann syndicate could tell, and they are not likely to, especially if they are already given them. Frank Oliver is already given them, and from them that he got the money. The deal, however, has such a legal appearance that a little study of it leaves room for only one of two conclusions: either Frank Oliver was crooked and sold his country out to the Canadian Northern, or he is so thoroughly incapable that it is a luscious claim.

Whether the deal really had anything to do with Oliver's contemporaneous acquisition of wealth or not is, of course, something that nobody but the Mackenzie & Mann syndicate could tell, and they are not likely to, especially if they are already given them. Frank Oliver is already given them, and from them that he got the money. The deal, however, has such a legal appearance that a little study of it leaves room for only one of two conclusions: either Frank Oliver was crooked and sold his country out to the Canadian Northern, or he is so thoroughly incapable that it is a luscious claim.

Whether the deal really had anything to do with Oliver's contemporaneous acquisition of wealth or not is, of course, something that nobody but the Mackenzie & Mann syndicate could tell, and they are not likely to, especially if they are already given them. Frank Oliver is already given them, and from them that he got the money. The deal, however, has such a legal appearance that a little study of it leaves room for only one of two conclusions: either Frank Oliver was crooked and sold his country out to the Canadian Northern, or he is so thoroughly incapable that it is a luscious claim.

Whether the deal really had anything to do with Oliver's contemporaneous acquisition of wealth or not is, of course, something that nobody but the Mackenzie & Mann syndicate could tell, and they are not likely to, especially if they are already given them. Frank Oliver is already given them, and from them that he got the money. The deal, however, has such a legal appearance that a little study of it leaves room for only one of two conclusions: either Frank Oliver was crooked and sold his country out to the Canadian Northern, or he is so thoroughly incapable that it is a luscious claim.

Whether the deal really had anything to do with Oliver's contemporaneous acquisition of wealth or not is, of course, something that nobody but the Mackenzie & Mann syndicate could tell, and they are not likely to, especially if they are already given them. Frank Oliver is already given them, and from them that he got the money. The deal, however, has such a legal appearance that a little study of it leaves room for only one of two conclusions: either Frank Oliver was crooked and sold his country out to the Canadian Northern, or he is so thoroughly incapable that it is a luscious claim.

Whether the deal really had anything to do with Oliver's contemporaneous acquisition of wealth or not is, of course, something that nobody but the Mackenzie & Mann syndicate could tell, and they are not likely to, especially if they are already given them. Frank Oliver is already given them, and from them that he got the money. The deal, however, has such a legal appearance that a little study of it leaves room for only one of two conclusions: either Frank Oliver was crooked and sold his country out to the Canadian Northern, or he is so thoroughly incapable that it is a luscious claim.

Whether the deal really had anything to do with Oliver's contemporaneous acquisition of wealth or not is, of course, something that nobody but the Mackenzie & Mann syndicate could tell, and they are not likely to, especially if they are already given them. Frank Oliver is already given them, and from them that he got the money. The deal, however, has such a legal appearance that a little study of it leaves room for only one of two conclusions: either Frank Oliver was crooked and sold his country out to the Canadian Northern, or he is so thoroughly incapable that it is a luscious claim.

Whether the deal really had anything to do with Oliver's contemporaneous acquisition of wealth or not is, of course, something that nobody but the Mackenzie & Mann syndicate could tell, and they are not likely to, especially if they are already given them. Frank Oliver is already given them, and from them that he got the money. The deal, however, has such a legal appearance that a little study of it leaves room for only one of two conclusions: either Frank Oliver was crooked and sold his country out to the Canadian Northern, or he is so thoroughly incapable that it is a luscious claim.

Whether the deal really had anything to do with Oliver's contemporaneous acquisition of wealth or not is, of course, something that nobody but the Mackenzie & Mann syndicate could tell, and they are not likely to, especially if they are already given them. Frank Oliver is already given them, and from them that he got the money. The deal, however, has such a legal appearance that a little study of it leaves room for only one of two conclusions: either Frank Oliver was crooked and sold his country out to the Canadian Northern, or he is so thoroughly incapable that it is a luscious claim.

Whether the deal really had anything to do with Oliver's contemporaneous acquisition of wealth or not is, of course, something that nobody but the Mackenzie & Mann syndicate could tell, and they are not likely to, especially if they are already given them. Frank Oliver is already given them, and from them that he got the money. The deal, however, has such a legal appearance that a little study of it leaves room for only one of two conclusions: either Frank Oliver was crooked and sold his country out to the Canadian Northern, or he is so thoroughly incapable that it is a luscious claim.

Whether the deal really had anything to do with Oliver's contemporaneous acquisition of wealth or not is, of course, something that nobody but the Mackenzie & Mann syndicate could tell, and they are not likely to, especially if they are already given them. Frank Oliver is already given them, and from them that he got the money. The deal, however, has such a legal appearance that a little study of it leaves room for only one of two conclusions: either Frank Oliver was crooked and sold his country out to the Canadian Northern, or he is so thoroughly incapable that it is a luscious claim.

Whether the deal really had anything to do with Oliver's contemporaneous acquisition of wealth or not is, of course, something that nobody but the Mackenzie & Mann syndicate could tell, and they are not likely to, especially if they are already given them. Frank Oliver is already given them, and from them that he got the money. The deal, however, has such a legal appearance that a little study of it leaves room for only one of two conclusions: either Frank Oliver was crooked and sold his country out to the Canadian Northern, or he is so thoroughly incapable that it is a luscious claim.

Whether the deal really had anything to do with Oliver's contemporaneous acquisition of wealth or not is, of course, something that nobody but the Mackenzie & Mann syndicate could tell, and they are not likely to, especially if they are already given them. Frank Oliver is already given them, and from them that he got the money.

It is the Home Tea of the West

There are good reasons why Blue Ribbon is the home tea of the West. It is guaranteed satisfactory. A small amount of Blue Ribbon makes more tea than a much larger quantity of other teas. The superior flavor of Blue Ribbon is noticeable at once. Buy a packet. If you don't find it satisfactory, return the balance to your grocer and he will refund your money.

SAYS CONSUMPTION CAN NOW BE CURED

By Using Gases Which Arise from Putrifying Flesh—Other English Scientists Do Not Take Much Stock in the Alleged Discovery

(International News Service)
London, Aug. 22.—Interest increases in the claim by Mr. Bryant, of Thornton, Bradford, that gases arising from maggot and putrid flesh are a cure for consumption, and during the past week he has received about four hundred letters from consumptives in England and Scotland.

He has been visited by many people suffering from this terrible complaint, especially from districts in Lancashire who desire to remain and subject themselves to the treatment. Most of these, however, have to be sent home again, as he has already on his hands as many patients as he can accommodate.

So numerous indeed are these, that they have to sit in the room where the cases are produced in their turns.

In every case, Mr. Bryant claims the patients are making substantial progress towards recovery. It has been suggested that the gases could be bottled and sent to consumptive people so that they might be inhaled at their homes, but for the time being Mr. Bryant is taking no steps in that direction, and the erection of large premises at Thornton is also delayed pending the investigation of Dr. Kaye, the medical officer of the West Riding of Yorkshire, who has been requested by John Burns to report on the discovery.

This investigation will take place ere long, and Mr. Bryant avails the report with the utmost confidence.

It may be mentioned that a gentleman who has taken a keen interest in the discovery has drawn the attention of the National Society for the Prevention of Consumption.

Mr. Bryant in the course of a conversation stated that the members of the medical profession were now taking his claim more seriously than they did at first, and some of them had acknowledged that they were making experiments with trimethylamine and ammonia, the gases which are supposed to effect the "cure."

GET IT AT THE BAY

PLANNING BOULEVARD FROM CAPITAL TO GETTYSBURG

Question Is Now Being Fought Out in House of Representatives—Estimated that Cost Would Not Be Less Than $750,000—7½ Miles in Length

(International News Service)
(By Victor Elliott)
Washington, Aug. 22.—A National boulevard extending from Washington to the battlefield of Gettysburg, Pennsylvania, rather than a statue at the capital, is the plan now urgently proposed to honor the memory of Abraham Lincoln. Indications are that the fight between the national highway adherents and those who want a monument erected to Lincoln at the United States capital, will be a protracted and bitter one.

Speaker Clark has lent the weight of his influence and opinion toward the highway idea. Congress has authorized an appropriation of $2,000,000 to build a permanent memorial to the martyred President, but the Fine Arts commission is leaning toward a memorial in Washington rather than a national highway.

The law, in fact, now provides that the Lincoln memorial shall be built in the District of Columbia, but there has been such a change of sentiment recently that congress may be asked to amend the law so that a Washington-to-Gettysburg road may be built. President Taft secured the members of the Lincoln Highway Memorial association that nothing will be done until both sides have had an opportunity to be heard.

Would Dwarf Other Memorials

Those who favor a national boulevard named after President Lincoln point out that the Washington monument would dwarf any memorial erected in Washington. The memory of the President of the stormy sixties, they say, deserves a more fitting and lasting tribute than can be obtained by the erection of another statue in Washington. The national capital is now crowded with statues to various heroes. Nearly every park and street corner contains a monument to the memory of some hero of peace or war.

At one end of the Mall stands the Washington monument, towering to a height of 555 feet. To place a smaller statue of Lincoln in this vicinity would mean that the latter would be dwarfed, and it is not deemed wise that there should be such a difference between the memorial to the man who made the union possible, and the man who had most to do with preserving it.

Grant Monument

At the foot of the capital and at the entrance to the Mall there is now in course of construction a monument to General Grant. In a way, this is an imposing piece of marble and stone, but it does not stand out in the bold relief given the monument to Washington. The Lincoln Highway Memorial association will fight to see that the memorial to Lincoln is at least one that may favorably be compared to that of the Father of His Country.

"At present," says Speaker Clark, "the law restricts the location of the memorial to the City of Washington. There are several sites suggested here, but, if the law can be changed so that the memorial may go outside of the District of Columbia, I am in favor of the Gettysburg Road plan. This would be a monument that would endure forever, and it would be a credit to the entire nation. Tourists coming to Washington would journey over it, and think that it would be peculiarly appropriate to erect a memorial of this character extending from the capital of the nation to the battlefield of Gettysburg."

May Abandon Statue Idea

Another plan, which is also regarded favorably, in event the statue idea may be abandoned, is to erect a great memorial bridge across the Potomac river. This bridge, sentimentally speaking, would be a physical connecting link between the North and the South, now united. Still another plan is to build a national roadway from Washington to Richmond, Virginia, the capital of the Confederacy. This road would have almost as deep a significance as the highway from Washington to Gettysburg, the battlefield where the long struggle between the north and the south was virtually decided, and where the future preservation of the Union was assured.

A delegation of the Washington-to-Gettysburg road advocates came to the White House a few days ago to urge President Taft to use his influence for a Lincoln memorial out of the ordinary run of monuments. They were assured by the President that it will probably be several months before the question is definitely decided. The magnitude of the project, and the fact that congress, without regard to sectional or party lines, voted an appropriation of two million dollars for a monument to Abraham Lincoln, is regarded as an assurance that in the end the greatest and most comprehensive memorial that can be obtained by this outlay of money will be turned over to posterity.

Would Cost $750,000

Representative Bland, of Missouri, a member of the Lincoln Highway Memorial association, says that estimates show that a national boulevard can be built at a cost of not more than $10,000 per mile. Granting that these figures are correct, the road from Washington to Gettysburg would cost about $750,000 for the actual work of construction, and there would be left for decorative purposes the sum of $1,250,000. With this latter amount two immense arches might be built at each terminus of the boulevard and historic points along the route might be appropriately marked.

If the entire two million dollars should be spent for a monument in Washington, it is not thought possible to produce a design that would compare favorably with the Washington monument. Speaker Clark himself is said to believe that Washington already has its share of monuments and statues of various shapes, designs and costs. It was the desire and intent of congress to erect a memorial to Lincoln that will stand out prominently among all others, and it is declared that the highway idea has steadily gained in favor since it first proposed.

"We plan to start a nation-wide propaganda in favor of the Gettysburg road plan at once," said Representative Bland. "The campaign will be carried on largely through the Grand Army posts throughout the country. Before the designs for a monumental memorial have been submitted, we hope to have so awakened public sentiment that the entire nation will favor our plan to erect a great national highway from the capital of the United States to the battlefield of Gettysburg."

Immediately following the adjournment of congress, officials of the Lincoln Memorial Highway association will make survey trip over the proposed route of the Lincoln boulevard. These officials include Secretary McCleary, General Hopkins and Col. McBride, of the G. A. R.

ADD WOMEN TO THE BERLIN POLICE FORCE

One Corps Will Do Regular Police Duty While Others Will Take Care of Infants

(International News Service)

Berlin, Aug. 22.—A body of women police has been mustered in Berlin. One section will devote their attention to ordinary police work, and to the other portion will be entrusted the care of infants. It is essential that the guardians of the children possess a knowledge of medicine. The women constables will be armed with revolvers, so that they will be able to protect themselves if necessary when entering houses in the lower quarters of the city where they have a suspicion that children are being ill treated.

Thirty women will be engaged at the start.

READ

"Canada and Her Colonies"

By A. Bramley-Moore

A Complete Statement of Alberta's Right to Control Her Own Resources

Price $1.00

If you are an Albertan you need this book.

For Sale By

Douglas Co. Ld. The Daily Capital

Jasper Avenue

37-39 Howard Avenue

BERLIN MERCHANT IS VISITED BY A SPECTRE

Eventually Turns Out That the Apparition Was Only a Very Clever Snake Thief

(International News Service)

Berlin, Aug. 22.—An amazing spectacle recently made its appearance in a small hotel in the centre of this city. A merchant from East Prussia was awakened about two in the morning by a noise in his room, and was horrified to see standing motionless before his bed a tall white figure with a pale face, from which two dark eyes were shining.

Switching on the electric light, the merchant saw the long robes of a ghostly visitor slowly disappearing through the door. Next morning he found his pocket book lying on the floor and the banknotes which it had contained scattered all around.

It was then he knew that the apparition was a clever hotel thief who had been disturbed by his sudden awakening.

FINE SHOW OF INDIANA FRUIT

(Union Press Service)

South Bend, Ind., Aug. 22.—In connection with the annual meeting of the Indiana Horticultural Society, which opened its two days' session here today, one of the finest exhibitions of fruit raised in this state, is held in this city at present. Practically all fruit raising sections of the state, particularly in the northern parts, are represented and there is strong competition for the valuable prizes offered. H. E. Van Deusen, one of the foremost horticultural authorities in the United States, is scheduled to deliver two addresses before the Horticultural Society.

AGENTS FOR THE NORTHWEST INVESTMENT AGENCY LTD. AR LONDON 3PT5 SPECIAL MEN ON RETAIN PHONE 2666-21 JASPER W

LAST CALL OF SALE

At CRYSTAL PALACE STORE

Suits
Coats

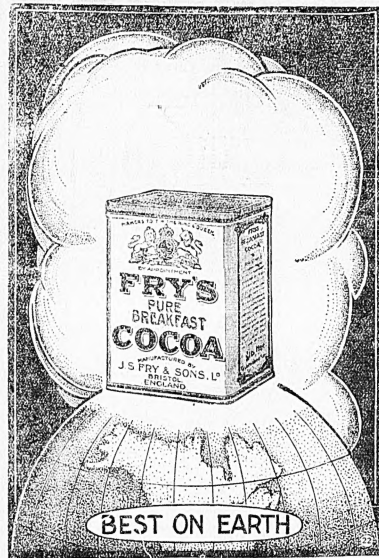

Men! Remember this Opportunity and Buy Whilst the Buying Is Good . . .

Shoes
Underwear

Cor. Jasper E.
and
McDougall

CRYSTAL PALACE
CLOTHING STORE

Opposite the Imperial Bank

FRY'S
PURE
BREAKFAST
COCOA
J. S. FRY & SONS, LTD.
BRISTOL, ENGLAND

BEST ON EARTH

WISCONSIN LUTHERAN CONFERENCE

(Union Press Service)
Wausau, Wis., Aug. 22.—The triennial meeting of the Wisconsin Lutheran Synod opened here this morning at Zion Lutheran church, with about 120 ministers attending the conference. The program includes discussions of various religious topics and a number of addresses on church work. The conference will remain in session three days and tomorrow evening the customary communion service will be held. In connection with the conference, the triennial reunion of the alumni of Concordia college of Milwaukee is held here. Many of the ministers attending the conference are alumni of this college.

COAL MINING PROPOSITION

THERE IS MONEY IN COAL WHEN MODERN EQUIPMENT AND THE BEST MINING MATERIAL IS USED. CONSULT US ABOUT

Mining Machinery MINE PUMPS HOISTING ENGINES MINE RAILS	Mining Accessories MINERS LAMPS AND SUPPLIES BRATTICE CLOTH FUSE, ETC.
---	--

THE ONLY STOCK IN THE DISTRICT. GET OUR QUOTATIONS.

Gorman, Clancey & Grindley
752-758 FOURTH STREET
PHONES 4661-4446

MCDONOUGH AVENUE

This avenue is bound to be one of Edmonton's most important business streets. Intersecting Jasper avenue at the corners occupied by the Imperial Bank, the Traders' Bank and the Dominion Bank, it is the vertical line of the cross which marks the centre of the business district. On McDougall avenue are situated the Postoffice and the new Court House, as well as the selected site of the new Grand Trunk Pacific Hotel, opposite which is the outfitting establishment of the DAVIES CO.

The DAVIES CO. make a specialty of completely outfitting parties of all kinds going to the North or West.

The DAVIES CO. carry a full stock of coal miners' and lumbermen's supplies. The DAVIES CO. furnish hotels.

DAVIES Co.
Phone 2853. Edmonton. 52 McDougall Ave.

H.L. WILLIAMS & CO.
(W. S. Randall, Manager)
Stock and Bond Brokers
Transactions on the Vancouver Stock Exchange handled through our special representative at Vancouver.
MERCHAN'S BANK BLDG., TOP FLOOR

Proposed Reduction in Holidays Cause Uproar

Residents in Roman Catholic Countries Object to Reduction—Bishops Will Hold Conference to Discuss Effect of Recent Papal Decree

(International News Service)
Vienna, Aug. 22.—Much interest has been excited here by the recent Papal decree "The Dominus Festis," proposing the reduction of the excessive number of public holidays in Italy and other Roman Catholic countries. In the Catholic parts of Austria, fourteen church festivals which do not fall on Sundays are kept as holidays, besides the day of the patron saint of each province, and it is considered that the frequent interruption of work in factories and business generally puts Austria at a considerable disadvantage in the economic competition with Protestant countries such as England with its four bank holidays.

In some of the eastern provinces of Austria the holidays of the Jewish and Greek orthodox population are also kept, and the total number of weekdays on which business is more or less paralyzed amounts to about one hundred in the year when the Jewish Sabbath is included, a circumstance which is itself enough to account for the backwardness of these parts. A conference of bishops will be held in November to consider the possibility of having the Papal decree made applicable to this empire. Manufacturers, mine owners, and many other classes of artisans, are in favor of the reduction of holidays, but publicans, coffee-house keepers, and the owners of theatres and music-halls are strongly opposed to any change, because holidays are their most profitable days. Newspapers, too, are not in favor of the proposal, as they do not appear on the day after a holiday and the falling-off in sales does not affect them much, as nearly all papers are taken by subscription here. Clerks, schoolmasters, not to mention the schoolboys, public officials, and all the rest of the great host who draw regular salaries, are not at all pleased at the thought of losing ten free days in the year, and it is rather doubtful if they change can be carried through.

REGULATIONS IN FORCE AT THE ISOLATION HOSPITAL

Among Multitude of Other Things Kissing Is Taboo—Physicians as Well as Those Visiting Patients Must Strictly Observe New Regulations

Kissing is absolutely tabooed at the isolation hospital, that is, kissing wherein any patient is a kiss or kiss-ee. This rule does not apply to the nurses. Health Officer T. J. White has laid down 17 strict rules and regulations which must be heeded. No one except from these regulations, and even attending physicians. A physician visiting this hospital must don a cap and gown. This cap and gown is not the one which they proudly wear when they received their M.D., but those provided by the hospital for physicians calling upon patients. The rules and regulations which nurses and other employees of the isolation hospital must live by are as follows:

1. Physicians visiting the wards are required to put on one of the gowns and caps provided for each separate division in the ante-room before entering the ward. The assistance of the nurse in charge is advised in putting on and removing these.
2. Surgical precaution must be observed in the scrubbing of hands after handling patients and also before if there has been any direct contact with a previous case in practice.
3. Don't touch face, head, or anything after handling patient, until the hands have been washed.
4. Don't allow patients to sneeze or cough in your face.
5. Don't allow patients to touch your face.
6. Don't kiss a patient or allow a patient to kiss you.
7. Wash hands frequently and always before eating.
8. Keep your own drinking glass and use no other.

9. Don't eat anything a patient may give you.
10. When going off duty, nurses are required to put off their outer garments to carefully disinfect and wash their hands and face and to use an antiseptic eraser or spray for the throat and nose. If a cap is worn the hair need not be so treated.
11. Put nothing but food and drink in the mouth; it is not intended as a receptacle for cigars, pencils, pens, etc.
12. All cases of doubtful diagnosis must be isolated as far as possible until all doubt is removed.
13. Before being released, all nurses and other employees must furnish a certificate of successful vaccination from the Medical Health Officer who shall also decide as to their physical fitness for their duties.
14. No patient shall be discharged from the hospital until at least the minimum period of quarantine provided by the provincial health regulations has been fulfilled, and the attending physician has signed a release card.
15. When necessary to send anything from the wards to the Administration department in the basement, it must be in a box, wrapped in paper. No children's toys, papers or books are to be taken from any ward.
16. Employees other than nurses in the institution is allowed in the wards except when absolutely necessary and then they must wear the supervision of the superintendent.
17. Any employee, or nurse off duty, found or observed handling or coming so close as to run the risk of contact infection from a convalescent patient, will be instantly dismissed. Remember that infectious diseases are taken and carried by contact and rarely if ever by air.

The above rules and regulations occur conspicuous places at the isolation hospital that all who read may know. They have just been compiled and installed by the city health officer.

KING GEORGE DELIVERS LECTURE ON MANNERS
Greatly Distressed Because His Countrymen Are Distanced by Races of This Continent

(International News Service)
London, Aug. 22.—An interesting conversation with the King, when he was Duke of York, on the subject of manners, was retained by the Bishop of Worcester during a speech-day celebration at Wolverley school, Worcester. "I was asked to address some public school boys," said the Bishop, "when the Duke of York remarked: 'Why do you not ask that at public schools manners should be taught?' I asked why I should especially emphasize manners, and the Duke of York replied: 'Because, as you know, I mix among all sorts and conditions of men, and it has been a positive distress to me to see how often, when abroad, Englishmen lose in the race with Frenchmen, Italians and Germans because of the Englishman's want of manners.' 'Foreigners know when to bow, to shake hands, to converse, to stand up or sit down in the presence of their superiors, while the Englishman is waiting in these manners. When vacancies have to be filled up, those points which very often tell, and that is where the Englishman does not shine.'"

"Because, as you know, I mix among all sorts and conditions of men, and it has been a positive distress to me to see how often, when abroad, Englishmen lose in the race with Frenchmen, Italians and Germans because of the Englishman's want of manners."

BELIEVES NEW SYSTEM ENCOURAGES THRIFT

French Under Secretary of State Would Start Savings Account for Child as Soon as Born
(International News Service)
Paris, Aug. 22.—With a view to encouraging thrift, M. Chastenet, the Under Secretary of State to the Post Office, has issued a circular to the directors of departments, from which it appears that various municipalities intend to put a franc in the savings bank in the name of every child as soon as it is born. By way of assisting the communes in their laudable efforts to encourage the habit of saving, among children the Post Office Saving bank will accept the deposits made in the names of newly-born babies. There is a stipulation that the children cannot withdraw the deposits made by their parents until they have reached their majority, or get married.

"Get It At The Bay"

And you can rest assured you'll get full money's worth—it's our aim to serve you best. Last week we took the first prize for our barn; a first, two seconds and a third prize for our horses.

- NOW SHOWING NEW GOODS FOR FALL—Not complete lines by any means, but sufficiently varied to allow of satisfactory selection and purchase as to style.
- NEW SUITS—We ask your attention particularly to the very particular suits we show. We selected these with great care and, we think, much taste; we ask your confirmation. Already a large line from $17.50 to $40.00 to select from.
- NEW MILLINERY—Smart, indeed, are the new "helmet" hats when pulled down over the ears. You're invited to view these new ideas.
- NEW SHOES—Ready now with first of the best shoes for Fall and Winter.
- NEW FURS—Beautiful and Serviceable Long Coats, Charming Neck Pieces, New Muffs.
- NEW TAILORED WAISTS—Put these on sale Friday, and they're going quickly, embroidered and tucked styles.
- NEW LONG COATS—The heavy Two-Faced Cloths are represented by some; crisp new collar and lapel novelties; these are some crisp styles embodying the new lines.
- NEW SWEATER COATS—Short and Long, $2.00 to $7.50 each, extra well made of all wool, well-knit materials.

Children's Reefers Coats of serge, covert and broadcloth; navy, red, fawn and tan. Smart, snappy styles; good cloth, ideal between-season coats.

Were to $5.50, now $3.95
Were to $3.50, now $1.95

Summer Waists now 50c, Values to $1.25—Quite a gathering, good embroidered styles, in good condition.

WORTHY DRUG SUNDRIES

Colgate's Perfume, Tooth Paste, Shaving Powders, etc.

Glycerine, Tar and Hotilla Soap, 10c for 2 cakes

Large can of Talcum, 15c.
Excellent Toilet Soap, 10c a cake.

For Small Tots, Cashmere Hose Little Darlings, 25c a pair—Silk heel and toe, a firm, fine cashmere; blacks, cream, sky, pink, tan and cardinal.

New Stock of Hair Switches—Also Puffs, Pads, Curls, Crowns, etc., etc.; long, full, good Switches, $2.50 and $4.00.

Getting Right Corsets means added beauty, added health and added comfort. Royal Worcester Corsets are acknowledged standards; they're up to date in every sense of the word. As low as $1.50, others $2 to $5.

There's a style for every figure; our saleswomen will assist you in getting the style intended for such a figure as yours. Have your Corsets fitted.

SKIRTS SPECIAL, NOW $6.45 Values to $12.00

Were $9, $10 and $12; very desirable, good styles, of voile, serge or panama; black, navy, brown, myrtle and grey; made extra well, of extra good cloths.

Boys' Buster Belts, 15c each—Patent finished, two buckles and ornament on front; red, white, brown.

New Tweed Dress Goods, 50c a yard—14-inch medium color, splendid tweeds; same in both sides.

New Imperial Navy Seiges—Guaranteed against sun and rain, absolutely all wool. We are the Edmonton agents for these, 60c to $1.50 a yard.

A 42-inch Serge, 60c a yard.

Turkish Towels, 35c a pair—Tan color, red stripe, heavy Turkish Towels, 38 inches long, 35c a pair.

Plain Wide Ribbon, 25c a yard—5 to 6 inches wide, good all silk ribbon in the best colors.

Seamless Extra Fine Silk Finish Black Lisle Stockings—These are very fine and absolutely seamless, the entire foot is double; also wide garter top, 50c a pair.

Just now these are a special lot, black and colors, on sale at 25c a pair.

New Down Comforts, Old Country—In this lot are some beautiful silk and satin covered comforts at $22.50.

Others $6.00 to $18.50.

New Hip Boots and Sweater Coats for Men—The "Bay" is well ready for hunting season. We'll not fail you at these particular times.

Men's Suits of the Real Good Kind $15.00 to $35.00, and worth it!

These are the New Suits that we had made for particular dressers, and made right—stouts, slims, mediums, tall, shorts, modest business suits, snappy "younger set" suits, etc. These are the Suits that hold their shape, because they're right.

HUDSON'S BAY COMPANY
The Great Traders of the Great West
INCORPORATED A.D. 1070
JASPER AT THIRD
SOMETHING NEW EVERY DAY

CANADIAN PACIFIC RAILWAY
FAST TIME TO EASTERN CANADA
THE GREAT WEST EXPRESS
leaving STRATHCONA (Edmonton) at 228.
WETASKIWIN, 23.05K daily, connects at Winnipeg with the IMPERIAL LIMITED train for Montreal and Toronto, saving many hours to points in Ontario, Quebec and the Eastern States.
For full information, apply City Ticket Agent, Jasper Avenue, Edmonton.
R. G. McNEILLIE, District Passenger Agent, Calgary, Alta.

Central Automobile Co.
57 Howard Avenue, Edmonton.
LIVERY SALES GARAGING
Edmonton Phone 4701
Strathcona Phone 3115
Expert Repairing a Specialty
New Cars Attentive Drivers
Open Day and Night

NORTHERN INVESTMENT
REFERENCE
Molson's Bank
Edmonton
PHONE 2042

THE DAILY CAPITAL

W.M. MACADAMS, EDITOR
HENRY A. BOONE, MANAGER
Office of publication—ST. HOWARD AVENUE, EDMONTON
Business Phone 4611

Subscription Rates: $4.00 per year in advance
By mail to outside points, by year $5.00
Single copies, 10c

The Daily Capital is on sale regularly at the following news-stands: Alder Hotel, Cecil Hotel, Castle Hotel, King Edward Hotel, Windsor Hotel, Dominion Clear Store, Red Star Store, Dundas Book Store, C. Smith's, Pitt Street, Calgary—Alders Hotel, Strathcona—Strathcona Investment Company. Carriers of the Capital are requested to favor the management by reporting any irregularities in delivery.

A MINISTER OF INTERIOR WITH NO POTLATCH POWERS

When Clifford Sifton was minister of the interior, one of the most telling campaign cries of the conservative press throughout the dominion was the claim set up by the opposition that Sifton was administering the affairs of the department with an eye to his own private interests. Columns upon columns of campaign literature charged the minister of the interior with graft, and the publication of this class of literature must have had its effects in the election returns, or at least Sir Wilfrid Laurier must have believed that it would eventually have its effects, for it is a matter of record that the premier found a way of letting Clifford Sifton out.

Taking his dark lantern Sir Wilfrid went in search of an honest man to whom he could entrust the department of the interior, and he found Frank Oliver.

Subsequent events have indicated that Frank Oliver is no more to be entrusted than Clifford Sifton. In fact, charges against Oliver are of handing out the domain in far larger slices than Sifton ever dreamed of, for whereas it was never charged against Sifton that he did more than pass out timber limits and a few hydraulic leases to himself and friends, it is a matter of record that Frank Oliver handed over to the Canadian Northern six hundred and eighty thousand acres of land in one chunk and there are stories about the suppression of the Guggenheim suits in the Klondike and the transference of the Coquitlam water records to the B. C. Electric which make Clifford Sifton look like an also ran in the old doubts of the honesty of the interior department wielded against him, and his answer comes in the announcement and get this whole troublesome business off his hands altogether.

Now Sir Wilfrid finds the same old doubts of the honesty of the interior department wielded against him, and his answer comes in the announcement and get this whole troublesome business off his hands altogether. So that when the Oliver crowd cluster round the minister with eyes agleam they possibly forget that even if re-elected he will be a minister shorn of power to wield the pen which might make them owners of a timber limit, a coal mine, a water power or a townsite.

The next minister of the interior, whoever he may be, will not have control of the natural resources, for these will have been transferred to the provinces, and the only power left to him will be to deal with homesteads which must be given away, anyway.

JUDGES SHOULD BE GIVEN A FREE HAND

President Taft recently vetoed the resolution, passed by the American congress, providing for the admission of Arizona and New Mexico into the union as states. The chief reason for the presidential veto is stated to have been due to the fact that in the Arizona constitution there is a clause which provides for the recall of judges. This system of recall was looked upon as the latest type of radicalism, in that it could be held over the heads of those on the bench, compelling them to interpret the laws of the state according to public feeling under penalty of losing their positions if they refused.

President Taft took the ground that a judge should have a free hand; that there should be no underecurrent which would influence him in handing down a judgment on any case. It was pointed out that while public opinion might favor a certain decision it might be contrary to the existing laws for a case so to be interpreted. It is scarcely probable that anyone would relish a position wherein, if he did not heed the clamor of the public, he would be ousted from office. There is no question but what the law should be carried out as laid down. If it works an injustice on either of the parties then it is time for the laws to be changed. The proper course is to leave the decision of cases to a court which will follow out the laws as they are laid down.

There would be little possibility of an unbiased decision being given if a judge felt that he was responsible to some particular organization.

ROYAL COMMISSION TO SETTLE STRIKE IN BRITAIN

Through the intervention of the government a general railway strike has been averted in the old country and a royal commission will now attempt to adjust the differences existing between the railway magnates and those whom they employ. The railway magnates contend that through a prior agreement the men have no right to ask for further favors and that until this agreement runs its course, which will be in June of next year, they will neither arbitrate nor grant any of the requests made by the employees.

At the time when it was evident that all the men on the railways in the British Isles would throw down their tools, an act which would have meant millions of dollars of loss to the country, David Lloyd George stepped into the breach and it was upon his recommendation that the royal commission was appointed.

Already the minor strikes in different sections of the country have resulted in a loss of approximately $100,000,000 and what the general effect on trade, aside from the monetary loss, would have been had a general strike been declared, cannot be estimated.

As affairs now stand there is little probability of a general strike. The commission will hear both sides of the controversy and will render a decision within a few weeks. When a decision is reached it is the common belief that it will be accepted, no matter which side it favors.

LITTLE FELLOW.

Detroit Free Press.
Little fellow, do you wonder
Why your daddy sometimes scolds?
Why you sometimes catch him lookin'
At you out of blurry eyes?
Do you wonder why he takes you
In his arms 'n' hugs you so,
As if you were going to leave him
An' he couldn't let you go?

Little fellow, that's the reason,
And he knows it's right you should
"Come and give your baby to me,
I have work for him today.
I have need of him to fill,
I've a place for him to fill,
Let me have his brain and muscle,
Give me his strength and skill."

Little fellow, when your daddy
Comes with sadness in his eyes,
And he looks away off yonder
And you hear his bitter sighs,
It's because the ceaseless struggle
Of the day has bruised him so,
And he dreams the time approaching
When to that his night will go.

Yes, he knows you'll want to leave him,
And he knows it's right you should,
For the world may justly claim you
When you've passed your boyhood.
But your daddy, little fellow,
Knows the bitterness and woe
Of the big world that will take you,
And he dreams to let you go.

NOT A FIGHTING EDITOR.

(Pincher Creek Echo.)
The editor of the Blaine Enterprise had a milder up in court the other day for bumping him on the back. A rough and bloody crowd doesn't usually get hit on that side.

THE BULWARK OF LIBERTY.

(Cincinnati Post.)
"Give them a court House of Lords, give them a royal House of Commons, give them a tyrannical Prince, give them a meddling Court, and let me have an unfettered press and I will defy them to overmatch a free press."—Richard Brinsley Sheridan. This in the face of which, amidst the clamor of a free press, we have heard with equal truth that the free press would fail to preserve liberty if the press were shackled. Laws and forces would fail to preserve liberty if the press were shackled. Laws and forces would fail to preserve liberty if the press were shackled. Laws and forces would fail to preserve liberty if the press were shackled.

IMPLYING A TOUCH

(Fort Saskatchewan Herald.)
Election dates come on apace—
Electors wonder about the race.
A feeling's felt by great and small
That Adam's race will lead in all.
The men will vote—the women can't
And meaning politicians rant.
Results to date are quite ambiguous—
But the Russian vote may be confusing.
—Implying a touch.

SOME CAMP

A western mining prospector was paying his first visit to New York.
"What do you think of 1871?" asked the proud Gothamite as he pointed out the skyscrapers.
"Wall," replied the miner, "it looks like a permanent camp, all right."—St. Louis Magazine.

"THIS DATE IN HISTORY"

- August 22
- 1485—Richard III. slain in the battle of Bosworth Field, the final conflict between the houses of York and Lancaster.
- 1621—Charles II. defeated by Cromwell at Worcester.
- 1776—Gen. Howe landed 10,000 British soldiers on Long Island, near the Narrows.
- 1811—William Kelly, inventor of the Bessemer process for making steel, born in Pittsburg. Died in Louisville, Feb. 11, 1888.
- 1849—Venice capitulated to the Austrian army under Marshal Radetzky.
- 1861—The Confederate Provisional congress at Richmond closed its third session.
- 1870—The President proclaimed the neutrality of the United States in the Franco-Prussian war.
- 1874—The independence of Serbia proclaimed at Belgrade.
- 1898—President Harrison gave the Congressional Gold Medal to the "Soldiers' Monument" at Indianapolis.

"THIS IS MY BIRTHDAY"

James O'Connell
James O'Connell, resident of the International Association of Machinists and one of the foremost labor leaders in America, was born in Minersville, Pa., August 22, 1858. His father died when he was two years old and later the family moved to Oil City, where Mr. O'Connell spent his boyhood and received his schooling. At 16 he became a machinist apprentice, spending six years in learning the trade. After becoming a journeyman he went to Detroit, where he remained about a year and then returned to Oil City. He affiliated with the Knights of Labor in 1886 and five years later he became prominent in the International Association of Machinists. In 1902 he was elected president of the last named body. The organization at that time had but 2,000 members. Under the presidency of Mr. O'Connell the membership was increased to 25,000 and the organization is now the best organized of all of the crafts. Since the affiliation of the organization with the American Federation of Labor Mr. O'Connell has been one of the vice-presidents of the federation.

Posters are so called because in former times the footpaths and roadways of London were separated by lines of posts on which it was the custom to paste announcements.
They have been seen in elections for parliament held in Canada, not including that for the first parliament. This shows the average life of a parliament to have been a little over four years.

TYPOS' CONVENTION COMES TO AN END

MANY IMPORTANT MEASURES PASSED—ASSESSMENT TO AID McNAMARA BROTHERS

San Francisco, Aug. 22.—The 57th annual convention of the International Typographical Union ended here Saturday. The laws committee, which has been every where since it was organized in the last ten years, passed through the convention with its records unbroken. The most important work of the convention was the adoption of a tentative arbitration contract, liberal in its provisions, to be submitted to the American Newspaper Publishers' association, January 1, the decision to result in a referendum; the raising of the number of union petitions required to initiate legislation from 20 to 100; the voting of a per capita assessment of 25 cents for the defense of John J. and James H. McNamara; the passing of resolutions urging drastic exclusion laws, and the decision to invest the old age pension funds in bonds, but to keep them for fighting purposes.

AMERICAN MEDICAL MEN IN ANNUAL SESSION

Over 1,000 Delegates in Attendance at Convention Now Being Held in Toronto.

(Western Associated Press.)
Toronto, Ont., Aug. 22.—The forty-eighth annual convention of the American Veterinary Medical association opens this morning. About 1,000 delegates are in the city from all parts of Canada and the United States. Each country is well represented, every state sending its quota. Pennsylvania alone is represented by one hundred.

STREET CARS SHIPPED.

On the 14th of this month two of the four new street cars ordered by the city long ago, and which should have been delivered before the fair, were shipped from Toronto en route to Edmonton. So stated a communication from the builders this morning to the city commissioners. These cars are the single rail, eye, cars whose efficiency are extremely questionable and the upkeep of which is much greater than on the double end cars. There are two more already ready for shipment. The two already shipped will reach Edmonton within about two weeks.

Seeding of fall wheat will commence next week on the provincial demonstration farms at Medicine Hat and Carleton Place. Throughout the summer the land has been carefully prepared, and the demonstration farms will probably be the first throughout the province to be seeded for fall wheat this year.

COMMISSARY MEN AT ST. LOUIS

(Union Press Service.)
St. Louis, Mo., Aug. 22.—Nearly one thousand members of the National Commissary Men's association met here today at the Southern Hotel for their annual convention, which is to continue through three days. The association was organized last year at Baltimore and this is the first of its annual gatherings. It is understood that Jacksonville, Fla., intends to make a strong bid for next year's convention. B. M. Leiby, of Duluth, Fla., is the president of the association.

TO SEEK UNIFORMITY IN ALL FOOD LAWS

(Union Press Service.)
Duluth, Minn., Aug. 22.—The problem of how best to bring about the much needed uniformity of the food laws of the various states of the union was the main topic of discussion at the meeting of the Association of State and National Food and Dairy Departments, which was held here today. Secretary of Agriculture Wilson, who is one of the strongest supporters of the uniform movement, was present at the meeting and delivered an address, in which he explained the existing conditions and pledged himself to do everything in his power to bring about uniformity of food legislation.

COMMITTED SUICIDE

(Western Associated Press.)
Smith's Falls, Ont., Aug. 22.—Henry Wilson, aged 24 years, committed suicide at his boarding house here yesterday by hanging himself with leather straps attached to the bedpost. He had formed the straps into a noose about his neck and then dropped from the bed. It is said the suicide is the outcome of a love affair.

TWO BURNS AND ONE MEMBER OF CREW HURT

Sarles, Ont., Aug. 22.—The tug Winslow of the Field Dredging company, Sarles, was burned to the water's edge early this morning while crossing Melburn bay on its way to the Georgian bay. One member of the crew was badly injured. The loss is $25,000.

STAMP EXHIBITION IN CHICAGO

(Union Press Service.)
Chicago, Ill., Aug. 22.—The twenty-fifth anniversary exhibition of the American Philatelic society opened in Chicago today, to continue through the remainder of the week. The exhibition has attracted a notable gathering of stamp collectors from all parts of the United States and Canada.

NEW HAMPSHIRE DAY IN OREGON

(Union Press Service.)
Astoria, Ore., Aug. 22.—New Hampshire day, the celebration of the state's centennial, today, the exercises having especial reference to the share of the Granite State in the settlement and development of the Pacific Northwest.

SUN FIRE

The oldest Insurance Office in the world
FOUNDED A.D. 1710
HOME OFFICE: LONDON, ENGLAND
Canadian Branch, Sun Building, Toronto, B. M. Blackburn, Manager.
KIRKPATRICK & PATE, EDMONTON AGENTS

NATIONAL INSURANCE COMMISSIONERS MEET

(Union Press Service.)
Milwaukee, Wis., Aug. 22.—Present prospects indicate that the annual session of the national convention of insurance commissioners, which opened in this city today, will be a very profitable meeting. Commissioners, deputies and actuaries representing nearly every state in the Union are in attendance.

Proposed reforms in the conduct of industrial insurance companies will form the most important subject of discussion. Recent investigation, it is said, has developed the fact that some companies, taking advantage of the helplessness of their clients, who are mostly of the poorer class, compromised or adjusted claims, so that thousands of dollars, withheld from victims of accidents or from their widows, children or dependents, went to increase dividends or surpluses of the companies.

CALIFORNIA STANDS TREAT

(Union Press Service.)
San Francisco, Cal., Aug. 22.—After the notable demonstration of hospitality given today in Eagle in attendance on the national convention of the order now in session here is likely to return home with anything but praise for the city of San Francisco and the State of California. It was "open house" day on the convention calendar and practically everything in the way of solid and liquid refreshments was dispensed free to the visitors. Ten thousand gallons of choice wine and carboys of California oranges, figs, plums, olives, cherries, grapes, raisins and almonds were distributed with a lavish hand.

SOUTH CAROLINA VETERANS

(Union Press Service.)
Columbia, S.C., Aug. 22.—The capital city of South Carolina is alive with Confederate veterans and their friends, who have assembled here from all quarters of the state for the annual reunion of the South Carolina division of the United Confederate Veterans. The city is extending a hearty welcome to the veterans. The initial session was held this morning and was devoted to the opening addresses and the exchange of greetings. The proceedings will continue over tomorrow.

Tacoma would like to have the Bunkerton national convention meet in her new stadium, which has a seating capacity of thirty thousand.

George Warner, charged with obtaining money under false pretenses was remanded to the mounted police this morning for an investigation as to his sanity. He is accused of having paid for his room and board in advance with checks and incidentally drawing down $2 cash, and it is alleged he had no funds with which to meet the checks.

Louisiana is in the midst of one of the fiercest campaigns for United States Senator that it has experienced in many years. It is a three-cornered race, with Governor J. M. Sanders, Congressman Robert P. Broussard and Senator P. Felix the seventh district as the contestants.

FOR SALE, CHEAP—ONE CANADIAN
Astonishing, two horse power motor, York and McNamara, 41 Jasper W. 212

MESSINGER BOYS WANTED, WITH
Schools preferred. Call at 225 Jasper East, room 5. 212

FOR SALE—WILL SELL CHEAP OR
Trade for city property. An improved 1 1/2 section of land in the Lacrosse District. This is $200 for some property. Agents Box B, Capital. 215

Namayo Theatre

Will be reopened August 29rd, under entirely new management. Strictly high class and up-to-date photo plays. The best family theatre in Edmonton.

Buy This

Lot 16, Block 22, Wedmanville, easy terms. Price.....$525
This is good property and must be sold at once.

We have some particularly good buys in this subdivision and our prices are right.

Gillespie & Hewgill
87 Jasper Ave. W. Phone 4614

Liberal Meeting

The Opening Meeting of the Liberal Campaign will be held in the Oddfellows Hall, Norwood on

Wednesday, August 23rd

The Speakers of the evening will be
Hon. A. C. Rutherford
Hon. C. W. Cross Jos. W. Adair
and others
Chair taken at 8 o'clock

All Are Cordially Invited

Real Estate BULLETIN

Business properties close in are in steady demand and considerable business is being done therein, especially in Jasper avenue and Warehouse Sites.

Residential lots are selling in the usual West End subdivisions—H. B. Reserve, Great Estate and Inglewood; and in Norwood in the East.

Houses are in demand in both East and West Ends.

Good acreage and subdivision lands are also inquired for.

ALBERTA PARK

We commend this suburb to our clients as a good investment for re-subdivision later on, the price being lower than any surrounding acreage, and it being in the line of the future expansion of the city.

If from Missouri, let us show you.

TODAY'S OFFERINGS BUSINESS

- 79 feet on Jasper Ave. east, per foot. . . . $300
- A 50-ft. corner on Jasper Avenue West, B. 16. . . . $12,500
- 2 Lots on prospective spur line already in (line already in block). . . . $15,400
- A lot on Namayo Ave., just north of boulevard. . . . $2000

RESIDENTIAL

- A pair of semi-detached modern houses, 7-roomed, on 12th St. south. . . . $7500
- A large 9-roomed modern house on 12th St. south, with good attic, capable of making three additional rooms. . . . $9000
- A 10-roomed Modern Brick House on 12th St. north. . . . $8500
- A 5-roomed Cottage on 12th St. South. . . . $4000
- Two 5-roomed Cottages on Ross street, on easy terms, each. . . . $1500
- A choice lot in Great Estate for a few days. . . . $900

FARM AND SUBDIVISION LANDS

- 160 acres good land, 1 1/4 miles from Strome Station, per acre. . . . $17
- 320 acres improved land, 10 miles from Baulf, per acre. . . . $15
- 160 acres good land, near Cooking Lake, 100 acres clear, per acre. $10
- A choice 10-acre block in Bremner estate, close in. . . . $4800

SCRIP

Stock of S. A. Veteran and Half-Breed scrip always on hand at current prices.

We also have some Red River Volunteer Scrip at present.

Loans promptly negotiated. Agreements for sale purchased. Stocks bought and sold.

York and McNamara

Real Estate and Financial Brokers
44 JASPER AVENUE WEST
Telephone 1650

NEWS OF THE CITY

Mr. Brady, secretary of the school board, returned from his holidays near Stettler on Saturday.

A special meeting of the Humane Society will be held Wednesday at 3 p.m. in All Saints schoolroom. Members are invited.

Dr. Dias of Amherst, N.S., who has been visiting in Edmonton for several days, left yesterday on the return journey east.

Thos. Gillespie, of Moncton, N.B., arrived in the city recently, and has accepted a position with the C.P.R. telegraph department.

Mr. James M. Bryson, a local grocer, has bought a pair of thoroughbred Jersey cattle from Mr. Bull of Brandon, Ont. Both were exhibited at the recent fair.

John Presl, son of James Presl, Edmonton, was married at Delganey, Ireland, on July 5th, to Miss Elizabeth, daughter of the late Richard Buckley, of Killineavale, Delganey, Ireland.

The Conservative electoral campaign in the constituency of Edmonton will be opened this evening at a public meeting in Oddfellows' hall, Norwood, when Major Greshbach the candidate of the party, will be the principal speaker.

There are before the city fathers at this time four different and distinct propositions to supply the city with gas. A new one developed last evening at the meeting of the city council, the new one offering gas at 90 cents per thousand as opposed to Cyrus S. Eaton's gas at $1.50.

Robert Farquharson, real estate expert who went to London, Eng., several months ago on business connected with the firm of F. C. Lovell & Company, arrived in Edmonton yesterday and is registered at the Alberta hotel. Mr. Farquharson will remain in the city for some time.

Mr. James L. Allen, Namayo Park, who came to the city this morning, declared that a flock of about 14 wild geese went over the city in a south-easterly direction early this morning. Mr. Allen believes that this was a prediction of a big storm, as it is very early for such a flight.

At the Toronto Conservatory of Music the following were successful candidates at the recent examinations held here in June: Theory, Junior grade; harmony, counterpoint, history—1st, class honors, Bernice Blackett, Edmonton; Primary grade; harmony, rudiments, honors—Helen Webster, Edmonton; Vera May, Edmonton. Pass—Nesta Mercer, Edmonton.

Mr. and Mrs. Nightingale have returned from Ontario, where they enjoyed their summer vacation. Westward lo college will reopen on Thursday, September 14th.

The duck shooting season opens tomorrow morning at sunrise. Several parties have already gone into camp near the streams and marshes in the Edmonton district for the shooting season.

There will be a meeting of the city council tonight in the council chamber at 8:30 o'clock. The petition of the International Healing and Lifting Company to have the gas bylaw re-submitted will be dealt with along with other business.

William A. Griesbach candidate in the coming municipal election states that he will insist that the pensionary be removed from within the city limits if elected to the Dominion house. The statement was made at an informal gathering of the conservatives last night.

P. A. Morrison conservative candidate in the Victoria district will open his campaign in the Vernon district tomorrow evening at Campbell lake where he will address a meeting. Other meetings will be held at Lundre, Red Lake, Devassy and Lacombe.

At a small meeting of farmers held in Wetaskiwin, J. H. Painter was nominated as a candidate to contest the Strathcona constituency in the interests of the independent farmers.

Reynald Alley an employee at the city power plant was badly scalded, his face being seriously damaged. He was fixing a dynamo when he received a shock and was thrown against a steam pipe. As a result of the scalding he may lose his right eye.

The death occurred this morning of the three-year-old daughter of Mr. Gatten, 1197 Fourth street. The funeral will take place tomorrow afternoon from the undertaking parlors of Mr. Goppen and Lambert.

The lighting department of the city utilities is installing a motor for Mauders and Company, contractors. This firm has the contract for the trunk sewer. The department is also installing two motors for D. G. Latta and Co. dealers in carriage supplies.

A week's operation has proved the new motor generator installed at the car barn to be a success. This machine transforms the current from alternating to direct current for supplying electricity for street car operation. Superintendent Ormsby of the lighting department has had charge of the securing and installation of this machine.

Factory Site
On riverside corporation. 12 lots for $8,500 Easy terms.

J. A. HENRY
203 WINDSOR BLOCK

NORTHERN INVESTMENT AGENCY LTD.
SELL FIRM LANDS
PHONE 2666—21, JASPER W.

TURNED IN FALSE ALARM.

As the result of a false fire alarm being turned in last night a lumber wagon was smashed and a fire truck badly damaged. The alarm was turned in from the corner of Third street and Jasper avenue, and brigades No. 1 and 2 responded to the call.

The call was sent in by a youth who mistook a buzzing in the police call box for an attempt to ring the fire department. The police sergeant was endeavoring to reach the policeman on that beat by ringing his box. The young man evidently was trying to do a good turn by helping someone called by the fire department but he made a mistake.

MAY BE MADE CARDINAL.

London, Aug. 22.—There are persistent rumors here that Most Rev. Paul Bruchési, Archbishop of Montreal since 1897, will receive the Cardinalry at the next consistory or earlier, if necessitated owing to the present illness of the Pope in Rome.

Namayo Avenue

The coming Retail Business street of Edmonton. Paved street, good street car service and the centre of Edmonton's population.

We have several very choice buys on this avenue, which we know will bring big returns. We invite you to see us before buying.

H. B. R.

- Lot 190, blk. 9, price $1400
- Lots 192 and 193, block 14, each. . . . $1150
- NORTH INGLEWOOD
- Lot 15, blk. 24, only. . . $250

HAGMAN ESTATE

All of block 23 and the portion of B. 27, south of G. T. P., making 23 lots. We offer this for a few days at. . . . $4500
Terms can be arranged.

KING EDWARD

ADDITION
Lots from $85 up; 1-6 down, balance $5.00 per month; no interest.

DUCEY and Company

504 Jasper Ave., Upstairs
Phone 4455

A SNAP on NAMAYO

175 feet frontage occupying corner position on Namayo Avenue

For Quick Sale

$15,000

This is one of the best buys in the city. Act quickly.

THE SETON SMITH Co.

PHONE 1011 93 McDougall Avenue

The PURVIS CO. Ltd.

The Store where you always find the Latest Ideas for Dress.

Models for Coming Season

FOR the past few weeks we have been continually receiving Fresh Deliveries of New Goods for Fall and we now have ready a representative showing of models for the coming season.

In the Silk Section

Silks are to be a big feature and we have all the new Fall shades in a soft finish messaline, a silk particularly suitable for blouses. Another good number is a fancy stripe Messaline suitable for dresses, in seven new colorines. This silk is extra heavy and in the ordinary way sells at $1.50. We are making a special cut line of it at

$1.00 per yard

SWEATER COATS have come to stay. Our range comprises all sizes from the youngsters of 6 months old to the 42 inch. There is a large assortment of correct styles to choose from; prices ranging from 90c to $15.00

STORE CLOSING 9 O'CLOCK WEDNESDAY'S DURING THIS MONTH

Our Windows will give you a very good idea as to the New Styles in Coats, Suits, Millinery and Dress Goods. We only show the very latest Models from the Centres of Fashion, and in the Dress Goods Department you will find all the Newest Weaves and Colorings that are to be worn this season.

Store Open 8 o'clock in the morning

The Canadian Investment Co., Ltd.

Real Estate Brokers

30 JASPER AVENUE W. EDMONTON, ALTA.

Phone 2903

Warning of Advance in Prices

Our Lots Are Too Cheap.

Every time we drive a load of customers to

G.T.P. Addition

It is as evident to them as it is to us that our prices are away below their real value.

Compare its location near what will soon be the largest pay roll centre of the city, the fine, high, dry site—the large lots and the exceptionally easy terms, with surrounding values, and the fact will be as evident to you.

But we are going to partially remedy this, as the price of every lot unsold Sept. 1 will be raised $25. But, even then, at the advanced price, you will be getting in nearer the ground floor than on many other similar propositions.

Prices now $90 to $200

Terms, $10 cash and balance $5 per month.

The Canadian Investment Co., Ltd.

30 JASPER AVENUE W. EDMONTON, ALTA.

Phone 2903

Now Boys Sit Up and Think

School will soon be opening and there will be quite a lot of things needed before you go back. New Suits, Collars, Ties, Stockings and many other things. We have everything right here that you will require.

Boys' Two-Piece Suits in a smart brown and black mixture tweed; sizes 30, 31, 32, 33. Special value. . . . $8.00

Boys' (11 to 13 yrs.) Brown Corduroy Suits, straight pants; wear like iron. . . . $6.60

An Exceptional Snap! Grey Honespun Suit, bloomer pants, for boys aged 11 to 15 years. This suit is made specially for ourselves and cannot possibly be beaten at the price. . . . $8.60

SPECIAL: Heather Mixture Tweed Suits, 3 buttons; a really smart suit for a careful boy; double-breasted; sizes 29 to 32. . . . $5.50

3-piece Lane Trousers Suits for youths, ages 11 to 17 years, from $8.00 to $15.00. We are clearing the remainder of our Boys' Wash Suits at practically half-price.

Special
Two Smart Coats from the First Floor. The "Purvisco" coat in reversible Highland tweeds. New shades of greys and fawns, this coat has collars, cuffs and pockets faced with plaid cloth and is of medium fall weight. . . . $25.00

Smart, Black Kersey Coat lined satin collar and revers are finished off with black satin piping. This coat sells at special. . . . $15.00

$12.00

WAISTS
You will find some dandy silk waists on the 1st Floor, black and white stripe taffetas are always smart and we have them from the neat shirt waist at $6.50 to the more dressy styles at $12.00

Six Deliveries Every Day

Tweeds seem to be the favorites for Fall wear, and we now have a fine selection in Cheviots, Donegal, Scotch and Fancy Basket Weaves. Navy, Helle and Slate grounds with a small black check is another novelty and should make up into exceptionally smart Tailored Suits.

Corner of Jasper and First Street